

RETROSTAR

Retrostar is an upcoming roleplaying game from Spectrum Games that faithfully emulates the science fiction television shows of the 1970s. Every nuance of those exciting and blissfully cheesy programs is represented in the game system. The game utilizes multiple six-sided dice and poker cards to drive the story along.

Little by little, we will reveal various elements of the game via one-sheets like the one you're reading now.

Displayed here is a filled-out character sheet for the series described below, Battleground: Homefront. The rulebook will give you all the data needed to create your own series from top to bottom. But remember: budget is always a huge concern!

The release date is still TBA, but keep checking our website (www.spectrum-games.com) and Facebook page (www.facebook.com/spectrumgames) for updates and sneak peeks.

BATTLEGROUND: HOMEFRONT

Pitch:

Characters live the high life as their clones fight in a morally questionable, unwinnable war.

Concept:

Earth was long ago deemed uninhabitable. Man took space while Gaia repaired herself. At least that is what the scientists hope and claim. Many were left behind. Society's wealthiest built a massive space station, larger than the old state of Rhode Island. But they brought with them the working class as well. After all, someone had to care for them. Generations later, there is unrest, both aboard the space station Roanoke as well as on terra firma. Those left behind, the Cros, have been rebuilding society. This does not please President Hecate and her Council. Attempts to land shuttles have proven fruitless, but she will not be stopped. Drawing from the ranks of the plebes – the working class – the Roanoke Council has begun the Pinkerton Initiative: plebes would be offered all the best the Council has to offer... in exchange for their consent to being cloned. Localized teleportation allows for small squads and teams to be sent planet-side to fight in Cro insurgents. But the Pinks aren't alone; their allies, the Far-Men, seek to restore order to Earth.

Misc. Notes:

How Many Dice Do I Roll and What Do I Keep?

-2	-1	0	+1	+2
4 dice (add together the 2 lowest results)	3 dice (add together the 2 lowest results)	2 dice (add together the two results)	3 dice (add together the 2 highest results)	4 dice (add together the 2 highest results)

This table is open-ended in both directions. Simply keep adding an extra die to the roll and keep the two lowest results or highest results, whichever is appropriate.
